Pronounce it "Scholgoesch."

The name of the man Ozogosz, who shot President McKinley, offers a problem in pronunciation to one-tenths of those who attempt to speak it. It is one of those names which the English alphabet cannot spell phonetically and which the average English-speaking person stumbles over trying to express after hearing it spoken by a Russian. Written according to its sound, the name of Ozogosz, or its nearest equivalent "Scholgoesch," more broadly speaking, "Sholgoesch." The former pronunciation is the one given yesterday by Sergeant Ter-Leskan of the Detective Bureau, who is a Russian and who is familiar with the varied dialects in Polish Russia, from whence the parents of Leon Ozogosz came in this country.

REMINISCENCES

Of an Ex-Confederate Soldier.

In the fall of '62 we were ordered to Knoxville, Tenn., to support Gen. Longstreet, who had Burnside surrounded in Knoxville. Our regiment numbered about 1100 men, as fine a body of cavalry as I ever saw. After several days marching we arrived there on French Broad river, that empties into the Tennessee just above Knoxville. A Union Home Guard was annoying our men a great deal by shooting from the brush and then running. They detailed my company to go around there and capture these men or drive them out of the city. We were to attack them at 3 o'clock a.m. We marched until midnight and found much good will be done.

The teachers of Johnson county met at Paintsville last week to attend the Institute.

We had the pleasure of attending the Johnson County Singers' Association Saturday and Sunday week, which was held with Low Gap Church on Little Pint Creek, six or eight miles from Flat Gap.

There were four or five hundred people there Saturday, and excellent order prevailed during the entire day. H. Daniel was president and P. L. Secretary. Good music was made by Miss Ella Webb, of Flat Gap, on the organ. Then excellent vocal music rendered by the Low Gap class and others, led by Isom Daniel one of the best singing teachers of Eastern Kentucky.
There were some very good talks by Milton McDowell, Isom Daniel, Henry Daniel and others.
Several speakers who were on the programme were not present. But Mr. Daniel was on the ground. The citizens of the neighborhood each tried to see who could show the most hospitality and do the most to make the occasion a success to be remembered by those present.

We noticed Miss Ella Webb, Addie Pendleton, Miss J. T. Rainey and U. S. Prince, formed a party that took a drive 'round the world Sunday.

Owing to the large attendance at circuit court this week the city's thoroughfares are crowded with visitors from the country.
The Steamer Maxie Yost will be completed in a short time and will be plying the Big Sandy when the season is open.

The services in memory of the late President were largely attended at the various churches in this city Tuesday night.

With Sunday night's concert, Director Edward G. Atches' Philharmonic Orchestra closed its 100th engagement at beautiful Cityside Park. It will be remembered this is their fourth season at our pretty resort and our people speak of them in the very highest terms of praise and sincerely regret to lose them from our midst. Prof. Abel goes to Huntington where he will direct the orchestra of the Huntington theatre.

As the days go by, the building up of the south end goes on; with the completion of the many new structures, now in course of construction, the south end will be shadedly improved, the credit of which is largely due to the effort of Prof. Abel.

Saturday morning at nine o'clock we met again and spent two hours very pleasantly. We are glad to see the young people taking so much interest in music for indeed it speaks well for the community in which they reside. — Scriba.

A never failing cure for cuts, burns, scalds, ulcers, sores and sores is Dr.
Wirt's Witch Hazel Salve. A most soothing and healing remedy for all skin afflictions. Accept only the best. — Scriba.

The News office has a fine line of cards for candidates and is prepared to print them on short notice and in the best style.

Dr. Holand preached his last sermon for the present conference yesterday night, and it was a superb effort. During his years service here the people of Louisa and vicinity have become very much attached to him and his good wife, and it is the desire of all that they be returned to this charge.

Democratic Convention.

A considerable number of the Democrats of Lawrence county assembled at the court house last Tuesday, in accordance with the call of the chairman.

The convention was called to order by the Hon. Compton Baldwin, Baldwin, who stated that the object of the meeting was to name and select delegates to the separate and legislative conventions to be held at Callettburg, Friday, Sept. 20th.

J. W. Woods was elected temporary chairman and M. F. Conley secretary. Upon motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

A motion prevailed to appoint a committee on Resolutions, and the chair named M. F. Conley, W. D.
O'Neal and W. H. Rose. They reported as follows:

We, the committee on resolutions, beg leave to make the following report:

Resolved, That we approve the call of this convention and of that at Callettburg next Friday, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for the State Senate, and for the Legislature.

And, that it is the sense of this convention that the votes of Lawrence county be cast in the Senatorial convention at Callettburg for Senator John J. Johnson, as long as his name shall be before that convention.

3d, that all good Democrats appointed delegates to the Callettburg convention, and that they be instructed to vote a unit.

4th, that we send our delegates to the legislative convention at Callettburg uninstructed, and that all good Democrats be made delegates.

5th, that we denounce and oppose the assassination of President William McKinley. We believe it to be a national calamity and a hold them from the dangerous hand of anarchy at our form of government. We recognize the high character and integrity of the murdered President, and extend our sympathy to his admiring, invalid wife. We declare in favor of stringent laws for the suppression of anarchy, and for the protection of our officers.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the convention adjourned.

TO KANAWHA.

Assistant U. S. Engineer Thomas Ordered to That River.

Secretly had the News been printed last week, containing mention of the probable change of Engineers, when Mr. H. F. Thomas received the order to report at once at Charleston, W. Va., to take charge of the Great Kanawha river.
Mr. Scott who has long been in charge of that river, was ordered to take the supervision of Big Sandy river. He promptly gave way to Mr. Thomas, but refuses to come home and has asked a hearing from the higher authorities about the matter.

In the meantime Mr. A. M.
Campbell is in charge of all the work on Big Sandy river.

Sudden Death of a Child.

The little daughter of Mrs. Clara Abbott Robertson died at Pittsfield Vt., Tuesday of last week, after an illness of only a few hours. She was attacked with congestion of the lungs in the forenoon of that day and died in the evening. Mrs. Robertson and children had been at the burial of her mother-in-law, three weeks previous, and expected to return to Washington City soon.

Little Evelyn is remembered by Louisa people as a bright and very interesting little girl. She was here with her mother last summer, visiting home folks. Her age was seven years.
Her death was a severe shock to her grandfather, Postmaster J. A. Abbott, and other near relatives. The body was laid to rest beside that of her father, who died when she was an infant.

11. The blessings which are conditional and which extend only to those who comply with the condition are, first, justification or pardon; second, regeneration, or the renewal of man's natural life in the likeness of the divine Image; third, grace to sustain us in life and at death, and fourth, life eternal.

11. The condition is faith. But faith without good works is dead; hence there is a sense in which it may be said faith and obedience are the conditions of final salvation.

And in this lucid logical way Dr.
Holand proceeded with an argument most attentively followed by his intelligent audience. His discussion reached a grand climax in the proposition that the bible taught a universal atonement and a conditional personal salvation, and that these two facts are the great pillars in the temple of theology; the beautiful supports of the arch which embraced the wonders plan of salvation. The represents the love of the world in the gift of His beloved Son; the other represents man's responsibility in the work of his personal salvation.

And then, with eloquent words and appropriate gesture, the reverend gentleman said he would embrace this pillar and speak to a dying people of the Father's love as manifested by his gift of the One whose "purple flood" was for all. But he must also clash this other pillar—this pillar of a living Faith and good works.

The above is the most eloquent of a most eloquent sermon. It was clothed with the logic of the trained theologian, beautified with appropriate poetic quotations, and delivered with the touching earnestness which marks Dr. Holand's pulpit discourses.

Circuit Court is progressing as usual with the following convetions for the posttrial thus far: Henry Alexander, Peter Spencer, Gulf Strand and Will Graham, The trial is now ongoing in the case of Nlm Thompson charged with the murder of Mont Beckles and will continue its sessions through next week.—Williamson

An Eloquent Sermon.

The M. E. Church South was filled last Sunday night by an audience that appreciated one of the best sermons ever heard in Louisa.
It was a masterly effort, fitting conclusion to Dr. Holand's year in our midst. After reading the text, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life," the preacher began with this declaration: "This text is worth a thousand dollars, for it is being written in flaming characters on the canvas of the skies, and punctuated with the stars."

This sentence was a key note to a day among the one hundred discourses the doctor has preached during the present conference year. The three minutes' introduction was a graphic description of Christ as the Great Teacher, revealing the love of God and the love of man.

The speaker began with this declaration: "This text is worth a thousand dollars, for it
